RESULT

The image shows a Windows desktop environment. In the foreground, a MySQL Installer window is open, displaying the 'Select Products' screen. The window has a sidebar on the left with options: 'Choosing a Setup Type', 'Select Products' (which is active), 'Check Requirements', 'Installation', 'Product Configuration', and 'Installation Complete'. The main area shows a list of 'Available Products' on the left and 'Products To Be Installed' on the right. The 'Available Products' list includes MySQL Servers, Applications, and MySQL Router. The 'Products To Be Installed' list includes MySQL Server 8.0.32 - X64, MySQL Workbench 8.0.32 - X64, and MySQL Shell 8.0.32 - X64. Below the lists, there is a checkbox for 'Enable the Select Features page to customize product features' which is currently unchecked. At the bottom of the window are buttons for '< Back', 'Next >', and 'Cancel'. The background shows an Excel spreadsheet titled 'UN population data - Excel' with a green header bar. The spreadsheet contains data for Australia, including columns for Year, Total, Gender, and various population estimates. The desktop background is a dark image with a white line drawing of a flower. The taskbar at the bottom shows various icons including Google Chrome, Recycle Bin, Microsoft Edge, Microsoft Office 2019, and the system tray with the date 14-04-2023 and time 19:36.
